Advisory Trust Group, LLC (the "GUC Trustee"), solely in its capacity as GUC Trustee of the GUC Trust (the "GUC Trust"), and Studio Movie Grill Holdings, LLC and its reorganized debtor affiliates (the "Reorganized Debtors") (collectively, the "Objectors"), file this omnibus objection (the "Objection") pursuant to section 502(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 3007 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and Rules 3007-1 and 3007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the "Local Rules") to proofs of claim that are duplicative of another filed proof of claim filed by the claimant against one or more of the Debtors herein. Through this Objection, the Objectors seek the entry of an order disallowing and expunging the duplicative proofs of claim identified on Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order

(collectively, the “Duplicate Claims”). In support of this Objection, the Objectors respectfully state as follows:

I. JURISDICTION, VENUE, AND AUTHORITY

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this Objection pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334(a), and Article 12.1 of the Plan. Consideration of this Objection is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(B). Venue is proper in this District and in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. This Court has authority to enter a final order in this matter.

II. RELEVANT BACKGROUND

2. On October 23, 2020 (the “Petition Date”), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition with this Court under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On November 13, 2020, each of the Debtors filed their Statements of Financial Affairs for Non-Individuals and Schedules of Assets and Liabilities (collectively, the “Schedules”). The Debtors retained Donlin, Recano & Co., Inc. as their claims and administrative agent (the “Claims Agent”) who, among other things, maintains the official claims register in the Debtors’ cases (the “Claims Register”).

3. On March 31, 2021, the Court entered the order [Docket No. 875] (the “Confirmation Order”) confirming the Debtors’ Fourth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization [Docket No. 875] (the “Plan”). The Plan became effective by its terms April 15, 2021 (the “Effective Date”). See Notice of (I) Entry of Order Confirming the Debtors’ Fourth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization and (II) Occurrence of the Effective Date [Docket No. 917].

4. Upon the Effective Date, the GUC Trust was created pursuant to the Plan and the GUC Trust Agreement, and Advisory Trust Group, LLC was appointed as the GUC Trustee of the GUC Trust. See Plan at Article IV.B.1-2. Pursuant to Article VII.B of the Plan, (a) the GUC

Trustee is vested with the sole authority to prosecute objections to GUC Claims, Convenience Class Claims, and the Panterra Claims and (b) the Reorganized Debtors are vested with the sole authority to prosecute objections to all other Claims, in each instance from and after the Effective Date of the Plan.

5. The Duplicate Claims. The Objectors have identified Duplicate Claims on Exhibit I that are identical in nature and amount and filed against multiple Debtors. The Plan was premised on the consolidation of the Debtors for the purposes of distributions to holders of unsecured claims. Specifically, the Plan provides that “each and every GUC Claim or Convenience Class Claim against a Debtor that is not listed on the Schedule of Abandoned Debtors, the Schedule of Non-Applicable Debtors, or the Schedule of Converted Cases shall (a) be deemed merged or treated as liabilities of the GUC Trust to the extent Allowed and (b) shall be treated as filed against the consolidated Debtors and shall be treated as one GUC Claim or one Convenience Class Claim, as applicable, as an obligation of the GUC Trust. “ See Plan, Art. IV.C.13. Accordingly, the same claim filed against multiple debtors is to be treated as a single claim for purposes of claim allowance and distribution under the Plan and GUC Trust.

III. DISCUSSION

A. The Objection Complies with All Applicable Statutes and Rules

6. An omnibus objection is appropriate in this case. Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d)(1) states that “objections to more than one claim may be joined in an omnibus objection if all the claims were filed by the same entity, or the objections are based solely on the grounds that the claims should be disallowed, in whole or in part, because: (1) they duplicate other claims.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 3007(d)(1). Bankruptcy Rule 3007(f) provides that “[t]he finality of any order regarding a claim objection included in an omnibus objection shall be determined as though the claim had been subject to an individual objection.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 3007(f).

7. In compliance with Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Rule 3007-1(b), a copy of the Objection will be served on: (1) the holders (and their counsel, if known) of the Duplicate Claims by first class mail; and (2) the United States Trustee. The notice of the Objection will also be served on those who have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In compliance with Local Rule 3007-2(a), the holders of the Duplicate Claims will be provided with at least forty (40) days from service of the Objection to file a written response to the Objection and the Duplicate Claims have been listed in alphabetical order on Exhibit 1 hereto.

B. The Objectors Have Met Their Burden of Proof on the Objection

8. Section 502(a) of the Code governs objections to claims and provides that “[a] claim or interest, proof of which is filed under section 501 of this title, is deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a). If an objection to the claim is made, “the court, after notice and a hearing, shall determine the amount of such claim in lawful currency of the United States as of the date of the filing of the petition, and shall allow such claim in such amount.” Id. § 502(b).

9. A properly executed and filed proof of claim constitutes prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of the claim. FED. R. BANKR. P. 3001(f). Under Fifth Circuit case law, if a debtor or trustee successfully objects to a proof of claim, the burden shifts to the creditor to prove the underlying validity of its claim by a preponderance of evidence. See Matter of O'Connor, 153 F.3d 258, 260-261 (5th Cir. 1998).

10. Following a thorough review of the proofs of claim, the Objectors have determined that the Duplicate Claims should be disallowed and expunged because they are identical and duplicative of other proofs of claim that were filed by or on behalf of the same claimant (or a successor thereto) in respect to the same liabilities. Therefore, to prevent an unwarranted recovery by the holders of the Duplicate Claims to the detriment of other creditors, the Objectors request that the Court disallow and expunge the Duplicate Claims identified on Exhibit 1.

11. In all instances, one claim filed by the claimant will survive and is unaffected by this Objection (the “Surviving Claims”). The Objectors have also identified the Surviving Claims on Exhibit 1.

12. By this Objection, the Objectors seek to disallow the Duplicate Claims and thus limit each claimant to its Surviving Claim and a single potential recovery. Any disallowance or expungement of the Duplicate Claims will not affect the Surviving Claims, which will remain on the Claims Register, subject to the Reorganized Debtors’ and the Trust’s right to object to such claims in the future on any and all grounds.

IV. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

13. This Objection is limited to the grounds stated herein. Accordingly, it is without prejudice to the rights of the Reorganized Debtors, GUC Trustee, or any other party in interest to object to any of the Duplicate Claims (to the extent not disallowed and expunged pursuant to this Objection) on any grounds whatsoever, and the Objectors expressly reserve all further substantive or procedural objections it may have should the Objection be overruled. The Objectors reserve their right to object on other stated grounds or on any other grounds that it discovers during the pendency of these bankruptcy cases. In addition, the Objectors reserve the right to file counterclaims against the holders of any such claims.

14. Nothing contained herein or any actions taken pursuant to such relief is intended or should be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against a Debtor entity or such Debtor entity's estate; (b) a waiver of any party's right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Objection or any order granting the relief requested by this Objection; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) a waiver of the Objectors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

V. SEPARATE CONTESTED MATTER

15. To the extent that a response is filed regarding any Books and Records Claim and Claim, and the Objection as it pertains to such Books and Records Claim, will constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 9014. Further, the Objectors request that any order entered by the Court regarding an objection or other reply asserted in response to this Objection be deemed a separate order with respect to each proof of claim.

VI. NOTICE

16. The Objectors will provide notice of this Objection to: (a) all claimants holding the Duplicate Claims and counsel, if any, listed on Exhibit 1; (b) the Office of the United States Trustee; and (c) all parties that have filed a request to receive service of court filings pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. Additionally, the Objectors have prepared a form "Notice of Objection to Your Claim" attached hereto as Exhibit A to accompany service of the Objection. The Objectors respectfully submit that no further notice is required.

VII. CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons stated in the Objection, the Objectors respectfully request entry of an order in substantially the same form as the proposed order attached hereto as Exhibit B (a) sustaining this Objection; (b) disallowing and expunging the Duplicate Claims; (c) reserving all rights to object on any other ground, and (d) granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
